

Popular Education: What is it?

“a method of education that is specifically concerned with the liberation of the people who are a part of it”

It sees all participants as learners AND teachers teacher as student & student as teacher

What is Praxis?

“reflection and action upon the world in order to transform it”

Goal → Humanization

What is important is the discovery of the oppressor-oppressed dialectical relationship, and to transform it. Otherwise, oppressed people can fall into the trap of striving to become the oppressors within the same structure.

Key Ingredients:

Trust & Dialogue

