

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

FREEDOM TO BREATHE INTERNSHIP

AVAILABLE

Communities for a Better Environment (CBE), is a statewide environmental health and justice organization that combines grassroots organizing, legal advocacy, and science-based research to achieve its goals. CBE's mission is to build power in low-income communities of color to achieve environmental justice by empowering community, reducing pollution and building healthy and sustainable communities. For more information, please visit: www.cbecal.org

General Position Summary:

The Freedom to Breathe intern will be responsible for assisting our organizing and outreach plans to build CBE's base through strategies of building healthier and greener communities. The position will focus on the East Oakland program to help mitigate industrial pollution and improve long-standing patterns of poor land-use. The Freedom to Breathe Intern will assist in connecting residents to issues of pollution and land use through education, outreach, and community action planning.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Conduct outreach and recruitment activities in Oakland, including community door-knocking, petition gathering, surveying, and participatory action research.
- Assist the planning of monthly member meetings and periodic community actions.
- Support online communications using CBE's social media tools.
- Maintain and build relationships with organizations including, but not limited to, public health agencies, schools, youth, labor and faith-based organizations to further advance CBE's campaign goals and objectives. Manage administrative systems and files, including time sheets, emails, reimbursements, and campaign databases.

EXPERIENCE AND JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Excellent communication and team building skills.
- Preference for CO-management of projects with community teams and community leaders.
- Willingness to attend weekend and evening meetings.
- Experience using Microsoft applications (Powerpoint, Word, Excel, etc.) or willingness to learn.
- Preferred knowledge of, or willingness to learn about, Environmental Justice issues in East Oakland.

Compensation

This is a temporary, part-time (15 hours a week) position, with an hourly wage of $16. This position will go from January to December. Due to the temporary part-time nature of this work, we are unable to offer benefits.

To apply: All qualified applicants should send cover letter, resume, and references via e-mail to: Subject line “Freedom to Breathe Intern” at jobs@cbeocal.org.

Position available until filled.
